

David Frumberg, MD

David Frumberg, MD, is an Assistant Professor of Orthopaedics and Pediatrics at Yale School of Medicine. He is the director of the Cerebral Palsy Program at Yale-New Haven Hospital. He is co-director of the Yale Limb Restoration and Lengthening Program. He is a medical advisor for Special Olympics CT.

He specializes in neuromuscular conditions and also complex limb differences, including deformities, infections and problematic fractures.