Maxwell Bogin Lectures in Pediatrics Topics and Updates in Perinatal Medicine

Wednesday
November 8, 2023
8 am – 4 pm

We're happy to announce the annual Maxwell Bogin Lectures in Pediatrics and Fairfield Pediatric Education Day are now a joint event. Please save the date to join us for a day of informative updates presented by Yale Medicine pediatric and obstetric specialists from Yale New Haven Children's Hospital and Bridgeport Hospital. The conference agenda will include perinatal topics such as lactation, toxicology screening and reporting, how to have difficult conversations with families, and resources for mom and baby post-discharge. This is a hybrid event.
